Glad You Came Releases Their Debut EP We Are Glad You Came

Copenhagen, December 2012

A year ago the duo Glad You Came put forth their goals for what they wanted to achieve in 2012. First and foremost they wanted to write a bunch of tasty pop songs, play gigs inside and outside of the border, and record their debut EP. Countless hours of working on their material has now been boiled down to a 5 song debut EP. Five plums - ready for the pickin'.

“We Are Glad You Came” is the title of the duo’s debut EP and encapsulates the philosophy behind the duo itself. Positivity, irony and cheekiness are keywords that pierce through the music.

“It’s about creating solid and delicious pop music that you can enjoy making your morning coffee or when taking a girl for a spin on the dance floor” says the duo, which consists of Lorenzo on vocals and guitar, and Simon on bass and backup vocals. When playing live they are supported by some amazing musicians who have also contributed to the rich sound on the EP, which is mixed in collaboration with Christoffer Stjerne from CSI Music.

So how does it sound? If you ask Lorenzo and Simon, they will tell you that they are somewhere in between “Baby-making-music and 80s inspired power-poprock”.

“One of the fundamental ideas for this EP was to show our quite broad span of genres. However, we feel that there’s a common thread to all the songs. Of course you can sing about love - the love you have and the one you can’t get”.

In 2012 Glad You Came played numerous gigs in Denmark. They’ve also been on a little tour in Norway where they were well received by the audience. They’ve also put a lot of effort into finishing the EP before the year was over.

The EP therefore symbolizes an end to an intense and educational year for the duo based in Copenhagen. New goals are constantly put forth and if their ambitious and creative energy remains, everything points towards a new year with great success. A new music video for their second single “Sunny Days” is coming up and the duo is working on a new tour in Norway, as they have started growing a fan base up north.
